

I hate time

Arrgh ! The journey that I just passed was the worst I ever had ! Generally, I'm very punctual but some days are harder. Today like many other days, I was late for work. Every time I try to be in time at work, there is always something to disturb me.

Last night, I was going to work but I passed in front of my TV and I was attracted by it then I lost the notion of time and got late for work. This is what happens everytime I go to my job. In case of that, my boss is always mad at me and wants to kick me out. Then, I come back to my house and tell it to my parents. They told me to run when I'm late, I tried it last week and I fell on the ice and broke my arm. I also tried to catch the bus to be faster but I always miss it. Finally, my parents and my boss want to kick me out !

Please god, I don't want to lose my job. What can I do ?
