

Ho my gosh, I have a big problem!!! I made many tests and they were all positives. I'm pregnant, but not just pregnant, I cheated my boyfriend with his best friend in a party. I had drunk a bit and I was starting to feel it. I did not know what I was really doing, but I did it and that's a problem. My baby's father is not my boyfriend. I don't know if I should say it clearly to him or just hide it and make a abortion. I tried to talk with him, but I did not know how to aboard the subject. I know he will be angry and broke up with me. I'm not in love with his best friend, it was just a very big mistake that I regret. I don't want to disappoint him and see his face when he will know all the story. He is going to be very upset of this It's sure, because he's very jealous and aggressive. Should I talk with my mother or a friend before to tell him? Maybe I'll feel better when I'm going to confess my situation. I need someone who supports me in this. Help me, I need advices please.
