

My job from hell

What's the problem? !@# $? I'm Gaby and I'm 17. I'm supposed to be a great guy but I got a lot of problems at work with my co-workers. I got problems because I'm not really talkative with them and I'm a shy person when I don't know my environment. It's difficult for me to integrate a group and it's harder when co-workers don't want to be with you.

It's not that I don't like them but they are always talking in my back and it's really upsetting me. When I arrive at work and when the boss is there, they are nice but when he goes away, they become mean. Every time I finish what I'm supposed to do, they wreck my job and I have to do it again. It's frustrating me. Because I have to re-do it, I can't finish on time, so when the boss comes back I'm never finished so he gets upset and puts the blame on me. However, it's not my fault; it's my partners'. I'm so scared, I might lose my job. I already tried to talk with my boss and my partners, but they continue to be mean with me and my boss doesn't want to believe me, because I'm alone to denounce them.

Please I did everything that I had imagined, but now I'm really out of ideas. What could I do more? Answer me please as fast as you can, I don't want to lose my job!!!!!!
